Dear Dr. Mohamed Izzeldin Abdelrahman

Ref: Invitation Letter

I am delighted to invite you to visit the Database/Bioinformatics Laboratory of the Department of Computer Science, School of Electrical and Computer Engineering, Chungbuk National University(CBNU), Cheongju, South Korea. Your visit will be from 11/1/2016 to 11/8/2016. The purpose of the visit is to give a key-note speech in the International Workshop of the Applications of Database and Bioinformatics jointly organized and hosted by the CBNU's Research Institute for Computer and Information Communication, and the Database Group. You will be scheduled to give regular lectures in a daily bases in addition to the keynote to discuss research problems with the graduate students at the Database/Bioinformatics Laboratory.

Our Laboratory will not only provide your travel expense including economy class airline round tickets from Sudan to South Korea, but also an accommodation of five nights excluding health insurance during your visit.

I am looking forward to your visit and the research activities.

Sincerely,

Keun Ho Ryu, Professor
